him. This farm is now owned by Charles Payson. The only surviving member of the family in the vicinity is Mark Keazor of Tilton. (See portrait and sketch.)

The original home of the Dr. Kezar family was on the Miles Cate place, now owned by Fred Bryant. They owned 200 acres there.

Dr. John Kezar lived later below where the Dow settlement now stands. He was a tanner and the sheds stood across the road on the F. B. Shedd farm, and the place is still called Kezar Corner. He m., March 4, 1847, Susanna Hodgdon. They had three sons.

She m. (second), Capt. William Prescott and remained on the homestead. They had a dau., Sally, who d. in early womanhood, July, 1847. Mr. Prescott d. in 1845, aged 80. She d. May 26, 1859.

Second Generation.

DR. JOHN KEZAR was a celebrated doctor and surgeon. He practised for 23 years at Starksboro. He returned later to N., where he d. Aug. 14, 1872, aged 90. He m., March 5, 1832, Mary Haines of N., who d. March 24, 1866, aged 56.

JOSEPH SMITH KEZAR, b. 1794, lived for years at the foot of the Kezar hills on the Bean Hill road. At first he had oxen and cows and tilled his land, but lived alone. He lost his interest in farming by degrees, grew peculiar and allowed his farm to grow up to bushes. He went to live with his mother after Captain Prescott's death and remained there alone after her death. He d. of starvation and a broken arm March 12, 1865, having denied entrance to every one for days. He had abundant means and, being afraid of banks, money was found here and there securely hidden.

His old home was bought by Rev. Simeon Spencer, torn down and removed to Park St., where it is now the home of Charles Heath.

KEZAR II.

JONATHAN KEZAR was the son of Reuben, who was called the "old well digger," having dug and stoned 47 in town, previous to his removal to Vermont.

He sold the island at the junction of the Winnepesaukee and Pemigewasset rivers to John Kezar of Starksboro, in 1842, for a bushel of salt, which he carried on his back to Peacham, Vt., from Franklin. He also bought a three-pail iron kettle when within six miles of the town, put it over his head and thus carried them both into town.

They were ~~probably~~ relatives of the Kezars in East N., although this is not known for a certainty. Jonathan was b. at Cabot, Vt., in 1796, and m., Dec. 3, 1823, Mehitable Danforth, and had 12 children, including two pairs of twins. He was a hard working farm hand and a builder of stone walls. In his old age he became greatly bent over and warped by rheumatism.

45 – Moses Danforth in Hist. of Sanbornton p. 209

THE DANFORTH FAMILY.
1. NICHOLAS DANFORTH came, with his three sons,
2, 3, 4. JONATHAN, SAMUEL, and THOMAS, from Framlingham, Suffolk, Eng., to New England, in 1634; settled in Cambridge, Mass.; adm. freeman, 1636; represented the town, 1636-37, and d. April, 1637. Jonathan was in Billerica, 1653. From him, or one of his brothers, may have been descended
5. MOSES [7], and
6. THOMAS (probably brothers), both of whom were among the first actual settlers in Sanbornton in 1764, and here passed the following winter, as their Petition to the Proprietors for aid, in view of their present sufferings from lack of provisions, was duly considered by the Proprietors in March, 1765 ( see Gen. History ). These two "Danfords" are named first in official notice of the above Petition; but before the Petition of Jan., 1768, Thomas seems to have returned, as then the name of Moses ("Danforth") only appears.
7. MOSES [5] had m. Molly Flood, and settled on Lot No. 80, 2d Div. (Site 1), on the Plains near the present Bay Road and the Danforth Brook. Their log-house, among the original Danforth apple-trees, is well remembered to have been standing as late as 1840. She d. Dec. 11, 1815. Their children were:
